
What makes Alpaca fiber different from wool?

Posted by llama_mamma - 2007/09/14 14:48

What makes Alpaca fiber different from wool?

=====

Re:What makes Alpaca fiber different from wool?

Posted by appmtman - 2007/09/15 02:38

Alpaca fiber, in contrast to Wool, is special because Wool has lanolin, which some people are allergic to.

=====

Re:What makes Alpaca fiber different from wool?

Posted by westernwoman - 2007/09/15 02:50

More importantly, though a few people are allergic to lanolin, the reason that lower grades of wool (sheep) are irritating to the skin has to do with the physical structure of the individual wool fibers.

=====